Planning a career in the field of rural public transit and have some great research to share? Whether you’ve already written a paper or just have ideas, consider submitting a research poster to the 4th National Rural Transit Assistance Program (National RTAP) Technical Assistance Conference: Charting New Trails for Rural & Tribal Transit. This is a fantastic opportunity for you to share your original study on transportation with top industry leaders at a national conference. Winners will receive an award.

Need a poster idea? Here are a few to get you started:
- GTFS (General Transit Feed Specification) Applications
- Transit Advocacy, Marketing and Social Media
- Tribal Transit Promising Practices
- Transit-Healthcare Connections
- Smart Scheduling
- Your idea . . .

When and Where
Tuesday, September 17, 2019
9:15 am – 10:00 am
DoubleTree Hilton
1000 NE Multnomah Street
Portland, OR

Questions?
Contact National RTAP at info@nationalrtap.org or 888-589-6821.

Posters for consideration must be sent by July 31, 2019 to info@nationalrtap.org. Please email an electronic version of your poster, along with your name, school name, major, email and phone number. We will review your submission and contact you.

Posters should be up to 4 feet x 8 feet and printed on heavyweight poster paper. You must present your poster in person on September 17, 2019. Attending the entire conference is not required to participate in the poster session, but you may also register for the conference. Students are responsible for printing posters and conference registration, if attending (scholarships may be available).